Reconsideration to Preserve Seal, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that on December 29, 1988, the file in the within case shall be unsealed except for individual documents that shall remain under seal, which have been designated by prior court order. Those are Exhibits 500-CCCC, 500-5L, 500-50, 500-5P, 500-5K and 500-60.

The ruling as to the Exhibits which shall remain under seal is without prejudice to further motions.

After unsealing, the file shall be sequestered. The file shall be available for inspection only in the presence of a deputy clerk. No more than two persons shall be permitted to inspect the file or any part thereof at any one time. Such inspection shall take place only in the filing room of this court.

In order to assure that the moving parties have early access to the documents, the Court further orders that for the first ten court days after the seal is removed, only moving parties and their agents shall be permitted to inspect the file. They are: Paul Morantz, Toby L. Plevin and such other persons as they
